

"ONLY BECAUSE OF YOU"

Roger Hodgson (Supertramp)

From the Album In the Eye of the Storm

*And so we sail towards the dawn, joining those [children] who gently mourn for You [Lord]
It's only because of You*

*Friends may come and friends may go, the only friend I need to know is You
It's only because of You*

*Mighty castles, lonely kings, hear the ragged children sing it's You
It's only because of You*

*He who smiles at lofty schemes, stems the tide of broken dreams of You
It's only because of You, It's only because of You
It's only because of You, It's only because of You*

*And when the storms have died away, only truth will live to say it's You
It's only because of You*

*And when the darkness flies away, only love will shine to say it's True
It's only because of You, It's only because of You
It's only because of You, It's only because of You*
