Before any court can have authority to hear a case, they must have both personam and subject matter jurisdiction. Any court not a court of record has no authority to proceed without the consent of the persons involved. American courts are vested by We the People of the United States of America.

1 The UUSCLGJ is comprised of fifty Grand Jurys each unified amongst the counties within their respective States. All fifty States have unified nationally as an assembly of Thousands of People in the name of We the People to suppress, through our Courts of Justice, subverts both foreign and domestic acting under color of law within our governments. States were unified by re-constituting all 3,133 United States counties.

2 SURETIES OF THE PEACE: If anyone has been dispossessed without the legal judgment of his peers, from his lands, castles, franchises, or from his right, we will immediately restore them to him; and if a dispute arise over this, then let it be decided by the five and twenty jurors of whom mention is made below in the clause for securing the peace. Moreover, for all those possessions, from which anyone has, without the lawful judgment of his peers, been disseized or removed by our government, we will immediately grant full justice therein. Magna Carta Paragraph 52.

3 "A Court of Record is a judicial tribunal having attributes and exercising functions independently of the person of the magistrate designated generally to hold it, and proceeding according to the course of common law, its acts and proceedings being enrolled for a perpetual memorial." Jones v. Jones, 188 Mo.App. 220, 175 S.W. 227, 229; Ex parte Gladhill, 8 Metc. Mass., 171, per Shaw, C.J. See, also, Ledwith v. Rosalsky, 244 N.Y. 406, 155 N.E. 688, 689.

4 COURTS OF RECORD and COURTS NOT OF RECORD - The former being those whose acts and judicial proceedings are enrolled, or recorded, for a perpetual memory and testimony, and which have power to fine or imprison for contempt. Error lies to their judgments, and they generally possess a seal. Courts not of record are those of inferior dignity, which have no power to fine or imprison, and in which the proceedings are not enrolled or recorded. 3 Bl. Comm. 24; 3 Stephe. People, “the author and source of law”\textsuperscript{5}, through constitutions\textsuperscript{6} written by We the People and jury nullification. Therefore, a court must first have “constitutional authority” over an individual and in criminal cases a court must have an indictment by an untainted grand jury. Furthermore, “all” state laws and constitutions are ultimately governed by the “Supremacy Clause” of the Constitution for the United States of America as ordained by We the People in Article VI, clause 2, that defines the “Law of the Land” which renders “any Thing in the Constitution or Laws of any State to the Contrary notwithstanding” [null and void]. Whereas the judge/magistrate retains his authority in Article III common law courts “only during good behavior” as defined in Article III, Section 1 and 2. And, "No judicial process, whatever form it may assume, can have any lawful authority outside of the limits of the jurisdiction of the court or judge by whom it is issued; and an attempt to enforce it beyond these boundaries is nothing less than lawless violence\textsuperscript{7}" and “that which the law requires to be done or forborne to a determinate person or the public at large, correlative to a vested and coextensive right in such person or the public, and the breach of which constitutes negligence.”\textsuperscript{8}

\textbf{THE LAW}

The definition of Law is that which is laid down, ordained, or established. It is “a rule or method according to which phenomena or actions co-exist or follow each other and must be obeyed or be subject to sanctions or legal consequences.”\textsuperscript{9} In our Republic, Common Law is the Law of the Land by which We the People chose to be judged when we “assumed among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle [us] them,” We the People further declared that, “We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.--That to secure these rights Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed,” obedience to the Constitution, is the extent of that consent and no judge and no congress can alter that which We the People ordained, to alter is high treason.

LAW OF THE LAND

In equity courts [contract courts], judges are to act under “American Jurisprudence” which is the philosophy of law, the knowledge of things divine and human, the science of what is right and what is wrong;\(^4\) the constant and perpetual disposition to render every man his due.\(^5\) It has no direct concern with questions of moral or political policy, for they fall under the province of ethics and legislation. They are to meet out Justice which in the most extensive sense of the word differs little from virtue; for it includes within itself the whole circle of virtues. Justice, being in itself a part of virtue, is confined to things simply good or evil, and consists in a man's taking such a proportion of them as he ought."

The law of nature [Jus Naturale] is Natural law [Lex Naturale]; it is absolute law, the true and proper law of nature a/k/a “common law as distinguished from law created by the enactment of legislatures. Common Law is the use of legal principles to discover by the light of nature or abstract reasoning comprised of the body of those principles and rules of action, relating to the government and security of persons and property, which derive their authority solely from usages and customs of ancient antiquity.

"The Supreme Court shall have appellate jurisdiction, both as to law and fact…" in all "cases in equity" thereby becoming the final arbitrator and maker of case law, governed by American Jurisprudence under the rules of Common Law; The Supreme Court has NO APPELLATE authority over cases "in Law" a/k/a Jury trials with the one exception of protecting an individual if an unalienable right of the same is violated. Federal District Court Judges, when hearing a "case in equity" are governed by American Jurisprudence and case law under the rules of Common Law. In cases "in Law" Judges or Magistrates take on an administrative role, with no summary judgement powers, whereas the Jury, a/k/a Tribunal of 12 People, is the final arbitrator deciding the facts, law and remedy with the power of nullification and mercy. This is called a "court of record" from which there is no appeal, as we read:

"The decisions of a superior court may only be challenged in a court of appeal. The decisions of an inferior court are subject to collateral attack. In other words, in a superior court one may sue an inferior court directly, rather than resort to appeal to an appellate court. Decision of a court of record may not be appealed. It is binding on ALL other courts. However, no statutory or constitutional court (whether it be an appellate or Supreme Court) can second guess the judgment of a court of record. "The judgment of a court of record, whose jurisdiction is final, is as conclusive on all the world as the judgment of this court would be. It is as conclusive on this court as it is on other courts. It puts an end to inquiry concerning the fact, by deciding it." -- Ex parte Watkins, 3 Pet., at 202-203 cited by SCHNECKLOTH v. BUSTAMONTE, 412 U.S. 218, 255 (1973).
THE AUTHOR OF LAW

God is the author of Common Law, which He wrote in the hearts of men, thereby giving We the People both the knowledge of right and wrong and the unalienable right of We the People to judge each other through tribunals called Juries. We the People ordained Common Law in Amendment VII and Congress clearly followed suit and established it through 28 USC §132.

We the Sovereign People ordained and established the Constitution which is the law of the land to be obeyed by all elected, appointed and hired servants. We the People vested Congress with certain law making powers in Article I Section 8 among which we gave “NO LEGISLATED POWERS” to write ordinances, regulations, codes or statutes that would control the behavior of We the People or apply any set punishment upon We the People. That authority belongs to the People.

“The very meaning of 'sovereignty' is that the decree of the sovereign makes law.” “A consequence of this prerogative is the legal ubiquity of the king [Nature’s God]. His majesty in the eye of the law is always present in all his courts, though he cannot personally distribute justice.” “His judges [juries] are the mirror by which the king’s image is reflected.”

Unalienable rights come from Natures God and are not subject to alienation; the characteristic of those things which cannot be bought or sold or transferred from one person to another, such as certain personal rights; e. g., liberty. Inalienable; incapable of being aliened, that is, sold and transferred. Rights are defined generally as "powers of free action, not subject to legal constraint of another, being unconstrained, having power to 24 Article VI, Clause 2: This Constitution, and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof; and all treaties made, or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States, shall be the supreme law of the land; and the judges in every state shall be bound thereby, anything in the Constitution or laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding.

follow the dictates of one’s own will, not subject to the dominion of another and not compelled to involuntary servitude. Any statute that violates rights is null and void.

“We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.”

STATUTES, CODES & REGULATIONS

Congress was empowered under Article I Section 8, Clause 18: To make all laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into execution the foregoing [17] powers, and all other powers vested by this Constitution in the government of the United States, or in any department or officer thereof.

"Under our system of government upon the individuality and intelligence of the citizen, the state does not claim to control him/her, except as his/her conduct to others, leaving him/her the sole judge as to all that affects himself/herself." "There, every man is independent of all laws, except those prescribed by nature. He is not bound by any institutions formed by his fellowman without his consent." Statutes that violate the plain and obvious principles of common right and common reason are null and void. "The assertion of federal rights, when plainly and reasonably made, is not to be defeated under the name of local practice." A State may not impose a charge for the enjoyment of a right granted by the Federal Constitution. "The State cannot diminish rights of the people." The Claim and exercise of a Constitutional Right cannot be converted into a crime. "If the state converts a liberty into a privilege the citizen can engage in the right with impunity." Laws are made for us; we are not made for the laws.

Statutes are legislated law but, “when a statute is passed in violation of law, that is, of the fundamental law or constitution of a state, it is the prerogative of courts to declare it void,

Since an unconstitutional law is void, the general principles follow that it imposes no duties, confers no right, creates no office, bestows no power or authority on anyone, affords no protection and justifies no acts performed under it... A void act cannot be legally consistent with a valid one. An unconstitutional law cannot operate to supersede any existing law. Indeed insofar as a statute runs counter to the fundamental law of the land, (the Constitution) it is superseded thereby. federal agencies heads obviously have the authority to write regulations in order to manage and the President can alter these regulations by executive order. Regulations are just another word for policies and procedures.

CONCLUSION: We the Sovereign People have unalienable rights under the Laws of Natures God, a/k/a Common Law. We the People are not bound by statutes, codes or regulations. Congress has no authority to codify and license our rights and no court has the authority to enforce such repugnant statutes. Any judge restraining said rights is in bad behavior and will in due time suffer the wrath of the People through indictments and judgments in Courts of Justice.
