

TO LIVE FOR THE KING

KERRY LIVGREN (Kansas), Seeds of Change

The rising of the sun
Is seen by everyone
And no one can deny that it's real
And when you hear the call
Come crashing through the wall
You just can't doubt the things that you feel

So lift me up the time has come to sing
And give up everything to live for the king

Though we fight against the rule
The genius and the fool
Are born to labour under the law
Before each man's a choice
Reject it or rejoice
The vision that the prophets are

So lift me up the time has come we'll sing
And give up everything to live for the king

Living for the king living for the king
Living for the king walk with the king talk to the king
Living for the king something greater than you and i is the king
Living for the king rejoice rejoice rejoice it's an easy choice
Living for the king the time has come to sing we're going to walk walk with the king
Living for the king open your eyes open your eyes the writing's on the wall don't you be denied
Living for the king reject it rejoice before each man's a choice
Living for the king
