The Court directs counsel for the government and counsel for Defendant Ammon Bundy to confer today (2/17/16) in real time (i.e. at least by telephone if not in person, but not only by written communication) in a sufficient effort to resolve or at least narrow that part of Defendant's Motion #158 that is time-sensitive and to file, no later than Noon on 2/18/16, a Joint Statement as to their positions on this Motion after such conferral. The Court will review this Motion #158 again after the filing of that Joint Statement. (bb) (Entered: 02/17/2016)

02/18/2016	167	ORDER by Judge Anna J. Brown as to all defendants. The Court has reviewed Defendant Ammon Bundy's Motion 158 to Amend Order to File Joint Statement. Bundy has not established any basis to expedite consideration of the discovery issues related to him any further than the already expedited basis on which the Court is addressing the parties' discovery conflicts. As with all other Defendants, Bundy may include a concise statement of his position in the Joint Status Report to be filed no later than Noon on 2/19/16. The Court, therefore, DENIES Bundy's Motion 158 to Amend Order to File Joint Statement, but construes as a separate Motion Bundy's filing 155 entitled "Reply to Response to Motion by Ammon Bundy" that was, in fact, a reply to the government's response to the Motions filed by Defendants Patrick 141 and Santilli 144 . The Court reminds the parties that they are not entitled to submit legal memoranda regarding motions to which they are not a party. As noted in the Court's Order #157 issued 2/16/16, the parties are to include "any stipulations that address the discovery issues raised in filings # 141 and # 144 and reflecting concisely any disputed discovery issues raised in those filings together with the parties' respective positions on those issues" in their Joint Status Report to be filed no later than Noon on 2/19/16. The Court will address all remaining issues contained in that Joint Status Report and, therefore, resolve the Motions filed by Defendants Patrick 141 , Santilli 144 , and Bundy 155 at the hearing scheduled for 10:00 a.m. on 2/24/16. 02/26/2016	213	Order by Judge Anna J. Brown. The Court has received and reviewed communications from Ronald Vrooman, a member of the public who requested in open court during proceedings on February 24, 2016, to participate in this matter as a "private attorney general." The Court notes Vrooman is neither a named Defendant nor is he an attorney admitted to the Bar of the Court in an attorney-client relationship with a named Defendant in the case. The Court also notes there is not any legal authority that permits the participation of any such "private attorney general" in these criminal proceedings. Because participation in this matter is restricted to the named parties and their qualified counsel, the Court, therefore, denies Vrooman's request to be heard in this matter. 03/10/2016	295	Order by Judge Anna J. Brown. On 3/9/16 the Court Clerk received for filing from James J. O'Hagan a submission captioned for this matter and titled "Notice of Intervention." The Court notes Mr. O'Hagan is not a named party to this proceeding nor an attorney admitted to the Bar of this Court representing a named party. Although the submission cites as authority for intervention Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 24, the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure do not apply in this criminal matter, and there is not any legal authority that permits the participation of any such person in these criminal proceedings. Because participation in this matter is restricted to the named parties and their qualified counsel, the Court, therefore, denies Mr. O'Hagan leave to file his submission or otherwise to be heard in this matter. See also Order #213 issued 2/26/16. Accordingly, because Mr. O'Hagan does not have standing in this criminal proceeding, the Court directs the Clerk to return his submission to him. No later than 6/15/2016, the parties must file a single, joint statement regarding proposed preliminary jury instructions. 04/12/2016	394	ORDER by Judge Anna J. Brown. The Court has reviewed and considered Defendant Flores's First Motion 379 R to Continue Trial Date and the Declaration 380 R in support thereof. As noted in the Court's Order 389 , the Court concludes it is too early to find any Defendant does not have sufficient time to prepare for trial and jury selection beginning on 9/7/16. With respect to counsel's existing conflicts with proceedings already scheduled in other matters, the Court likewise concludes it is premature to find those other matters will, in fact, go as presently scheduled. Accordingly, the Court DENIES Defendant's Motion as premature but with leave to renew no earlier than 7/7/16 on a specific factual record demonstrating that, despite diligent preparation, this Defendant is unable to be prepared to begin jury selection as scheduled on 9/7/16, or demonstrating the pre-existing scheduling conflicts of Defendant's counsel persist in a way that makes it unreasonable to require this Defendant to proceed to trial 9/7/16.as to Eric Lee Flores (25) (bb) Modified on 4/18/2016, to correct typo. No replies are permitted. The Court will hear oral argument on these Motions 5/23/16, 5/24/16, and 5/25/16 subject to time allotments to be set by the Court. REMINDER: All defense motions are deemed filed on behalf of all Defendants unless noted otherwise in the caption or a specific Defendant opts out in a notice filed with the Court within 3 days of the filing of the motion. All motions require advance conferral with opposing counsel, and the conferral must be in real time rather than merely by email and must be done sufficiently in advance of filing for two reasons: (1) to seek to narrow the disputed issue as much as possible and (2) to provide opposing counsel enough information about the basis of the motion to begin to prepare the response even before the motion is filed as deadlines for responses will be short out of necessity. In addition, although no replies will be permitted, the moving party may reply on the record during argument. Ordered by Judge Anna J. Brown. (dls) (Entered: 04/15/2016)

04/20/2016	440	ORDER by Judge Anna J. Brown. The Court has reviewed Defendant Kenneth Medenbach's Motion 361 for Reconsideration and related Amended Motion 384 to Dismiss. In those Motions Medenbach raises the same arguments that the Court rejected when, on March 11, 2016, it denied Medenbach's oral Motion to Dismiss for Lack of Subject Matter Jurisdiction. Moreover, the arguments raised by Medenbach are the same arguments that the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals and other courts in this District have repeatedly rejected. See United States v. Medenbach , No. 96-30168, 1997 WL 306437, at *3 (9th Cir. June 5, 1997). See also United States v. Medenbach , No. 1:15-cr-00407-MC, 2016 WL 1394440, at *1 (D. Or. Apr. 7, 2016); Medenbach v. United States , No. 1:14-cv-00641-PA (D. Or. Apr. 22, 2014). The Court, therefore, concludes Medenbach's contentions are without merit. Accordingly, on this record the Court DENIES Medenbach's Motion 361 for Reconsideration and Amened Motion 384 to Dismiss. Copy forwarded to defendant via the USM. The Court has reviewed the parties' Joint Discovery Report #442 and makes the following Order: With respect to Dispute No. 1, Defendants must file their collective motion no later than 5:00 pm on 4/25/16, and the government must file its opposition no later than 8:00 am on 5/2/16. No reply filing is permitted. The Court will hear argument on the motion at the 5/4/16 Status Hearing. With respect to Dispute No. 2, the Court is not aware of authority requiring the government to create "lists" of evidence such as transcribed statements. Nevertheless, as the government acknowledges, it must produce such transcriptions. Accordingly, the Court directs the government to give high priority to producing any transcribed statements by any Defendant as the government continues to produce discovery generally and, if such transcribed statements have not been produced to Defendants by the 5/4/16 Status Hearing, to be prepared to specify when they will be produced and the reason for any further delay in doing so. 04/25/2016	455	ORDER: The Court DENIES Defendant Ammon Bundy's "Emergency" Motion (#453) for Extension of Time. Bundy has been aware of the basis of his anticipated motion to dismiss for lack of subject-matter jurisdiction since these proceedings began and has not made any showing that he has been unable to prepare sufficiently despite due diligence. Moreover, the compressed timeline on which this case is proceeding (in large part at Ammon Bundy's insistence) does not allow for flexibility as to the timing of this first round of legal motions. Accordingly, the Court directs Ammon Bundy to file his anticipated motion to dismiss for lack of subject-matter jurisdiction no later than April 27, 2016. In addition, the Court notes it appears Ammon Bundy's anticipated motion relies on the type of historical and legal facts that do not ordinarily necessitate an evidentiary hearing or the examination of live witnesses. Accordingly, the Court directs Ammon Bundy to file any necessary supporting material in the form of declaration(s) together with his anticipated motion. After reviewing Ammon Bundy's submissions, the Court will determine whether an evidentiary hearing is necessary. Ordered by Judge Anna J. Brown. (dls) (Entered: 04/25/2016)

04/27/2016	475	Order by Judge Anna J. Brown as to Ammon Bundy. The Court has reviewed Defendant Ammon Bundy's Motion 470 to Continue, and, in light of Bundy's recent absence from the District of Oregon, the Court finds good cause has now been shown warranting an extension of the 4/27/2016 filing deadline roughly equal to the length of Defendant's absence for Defendant to file his motion to dismiss for lack of subject-matter jurisdiction. Accordingly, the Court GRANTS in part Defendant's Motion 470 and extends the deadline for the filing of this Motion to Noon on 5/9/2016. In turn, the government's response is due at Noon on 5/16/2016. The Court will hear argument on the Motion within the time currently set aside for oral arguments beginning 5/23/2016.. 05/09/2016	530	ORDER by Judge Anna J. Brown as to Ammon Bundy (1). The Court STRIKES the Motion 527 to Dismiss for Lack of Subject Matter Jurisdiction filed by Defendant Ammon Bundy. Bundy's Motion and attached Memorandum total 33 pages in length, the vast majority of which contains detailed factual background and legal argument that is only appropriately included in a memorandum in support. Accordingly, Bundy's Motion and Memorandum does not comply with the Court's Order 464 in which the Court granted Bundy's Motion 463 R for Leave to File Memorandum Over 10 Pages, and permitted Bundy to file a memorandum in support of his motion that did not exceed 15 pages. The Court grants Bundy leave to re-file his motion no later than Noon on May 10, 2016. Defendant Bundy's re-filed motion may not exceed 3 pages (including the case caption and signature block). Bundy's re-filed memorandum in support may not exceed 15 pages (including the case caption and signature block) or 4,500 words of text (including footnotes), whichever is less. All pleadings must conform to the formatting requirements of Local Rule of Civil Procedure 10. If Defendant Bundy's re-filed motion does not comply with the Court's orders, the motion will be considered waived and may not be renewed. In the alternative, after real-time conferral with counsel for the government, Bundy may file no later than Noon on May 10, 2016, a second motion for leave to file an overlength brief together with a showing as to the necessity of a memorandum of greater than 15 pages. The Court has reviewed the government's Response 569 R to David Lee Fry's Motion 493 to Compel Discovery. The Court finds the government's assurance that it will not introduce at trial Fry's statements from the February 11, 2016, interview does not moot the discovery issues in Defendant's Motion because any finding that government agents violated Fry's Sixth Amendment right to counsel would require the Court also to analyze whether there are fruits of that violation that must also be excluded from evidence. Accordingly, the Court directs the government to file a supplemental memorandum addressing this issue no later than May 25, 2016. The Clerk will schedule a hearing thereafter for Defendant Fry and his counsel to reply on the record and for the Court to hear any additional government argument on Defendant Fry's Motion. 05/17/2016	577	Order Setting Oral Argument Schedule on Motions 465 , 469 , 471 , 474 , and 480 ; and Permitting the Filing of Replies for Motions 479 , 482 , 505 , and 527 by Judge Anna J. Brown. After reviewing the record on Defendants Round One Motions, the Court has determined oral argument on the following schedule will be helpful to resolve the issues raised in the following Motions: Defendants Motion 465 to Dismiss Count 3 of Superseding Indictment; Defendants Motion 469 for Bill of Particulars; Defendants Motion 471 to Dismiss Count 1 for Vagueness and Defendant Peter Santillis Motion 477 to Dismiss Count 1 for Vagueness; and Defendants Motion 474 to Dismiss Count 1 as Overbroad. These motions will be heard on 5/23/2016 at 9:30 AM. With respect to Defendants Motion 480 to Dismiss, the Court will determine whether to allocate time for oral argument after it receives the parties input regarding the potential effect of the pending appeal in the Ninth Circuit on this Motion. The Court concludes oral argument is not necessary to resolve the following Motions: 1. Defendant Peter Santillis Motion 479 to Dismiss Count 1 as Constitutionally Protected Conduct. 2. Defendants Motion 482 to Dismiss Count 2 for Vagueness and Overbreadth. 3. Defendant Kenneth Medenbachs Motion 505 to Dismiss. 4. Defendants Motion 527 to Dismiss for Lack of Subject Matter Jurisdiction. The Court acknowledges the filing of Defendant Ammon Bundy's Notice 610 R of Substitution of Counsel in which Bundy seeks to substitute J. Accordingly, the Court DENIES as moot Defendant Fry's Motion 493 to Compel Discovery with leave to renew after full conferral in the event there is any disagreement between the parties regarding the scope of evidence that should not be introduced at trial because of counsel's invocation of Defendant Fry's rights. 06/13/2016	681	Order by Judge Anna J. Brown as to Kenneth Medenbach. The Court has reviewed Defendant Kenneth Medenbach's Motion 660 R to Dismiss and has been advised the government does not intend to file a response to the Motion. The Court finds this Motion is framed on materially the same basis as Defendant's previous Motion 505 R to Dismiss that the Court denied by its June 3, 2016, Order 649 R Resolving Round One Motions on the Pleadings and concludes oral argument on this Motion is not warranted. In any event, the Court finds the additional information Defendant provides in this Motion does not affect the Court's legal analysis and conclusions resulting in the denial of Defendant's Motion 505 R because the Court remains bound by Supreme Court precedent. Accordingly, for the same reasons the Court provided in Order 649 R Resolving Round One Motions on the Pleadings, the Court DENIES Defendant Medenbach's Motion 660 R to Dismiss. The Court, however, defers until the August Status Hearing in this matter (August 3, 2016) setting a new trial date for these Defendants and any others who may waive their speedy trial rights and request a continuance. Notwithstanding the Courts continuance of the trial date, Defendants Sean Anderson, Ritzheimer, and Ryan must continue to participate in the ongoing Status Hearings in this matter through August 3, 2016, and they remain bound by the Courts rulings on all motions (including government motions) that raise issues applicable to them except to the extent that Defendants Sean Anderson, Ritzheimer, and Ryan explicitly opt out of any particular motions brought by other Defendants. 06/17/2016	727	Order as to Travis Cox by Judge Anna J. Brown. Defendant Travis Cox is currently set for trial on June 28, 2016. Pursuant to the Order 289 Designating this Case as Complex, issued March 9, 2016, and the Order 389 , issued April 11, 2016, the Court has currently set a single trial to begin September 7, 2016, as to all Defendants who have not yet waived their rights under the Speedy Trial Act and found finding excludable delay under the Speedy Trial Act through that date. It appears Defendant Cox was set for trial on a different date only because he was arraigned after the Court entered those Orders. Accordingly, the Court resets Cox's trial date from June 28, 2016, to September 7, 2016. In addition, the Court concludes the same reasons that justified the finding of excludable delay under the Speedy Trial Act as to the other Defendants apply equally to Cox, and, therefore finds excludable delay through September 7, 2016. This Order does not affect Defendant Cox's right to file a motion to continue his trial date no later than June 30, 2016. (bb) (Entered: 06/17/2016)

The Court grants the government's unopposed, email request for an extension until July 1, 2016, of the June 29, 2016 deadline 726 R to respond to Defendant David Lee Fry's Motion 741 to Suppress Evidence (Facebook Accounts). Accordingly, the government's response to this Motion is due no later than July 1, 2016. No replies are permitted without leave of Court. The Court will determine as soon as practicable after July 1, 2016, whether to schedule an evidentiary hearing and/or oral argument on this Motion during the week of July 18, 2016, along with other Round Two Motions. 06/24/2016	776	Order by Judge Anna J. Brown as to Jason Patrick. The Court grants the unopposed, email request by Defendant Jason Patrick through his Stand-By Counsel, Andrew Kohlmetz, for an extension of the June 24, 2016, deadline (#726, p.8) until close-of-business on June 29, 2016, to file a motion to compel "database information" for the purpose of allowing the parties additional conferral time that may moot the need for the motion. If such motion is filed, the government's response thereto remains due no later than July 1, 2016, unless extended by the Court for good cause shown, after which the Court will determine whether a reply memorandum is needed to resolve the matter. (bb) (Entered: 06/24/2016)
06/24/2016	777	ORDER by Judge Anna J. Brown. The Court has reviewed the Motion 700 R to Compel Production of the Investigation of FBI Use of Force and Cover-Up in the Finicum Shooting filed by Defendant David Lee Fry in the context of the government's Renewed Motion 755 for Order Permitting the Government to File Under Seal and Ex Parte the Declaration of AUSA Holsinger as part of its response to the Motion as well as Fry's Response 769 to the Government's Renewed Motion. The Court notes the consideration of ex parte filings on contested matters is strongly disfavored, especially in a criminal proceeding, and is only appropriate after a compelling showing of necessity. The Court concludes the government has not yet demonstrated the ex parte filing is necessary to respond to Fry's Motion to Compel on its merits, and, therefore, the Court DENIES the government's Motion 755 for Order Permitting the Government to File Under Seal and Ex Parte the Declaration of AUSA Holsinger. The Court directs the government to file no later than Noon, Monday, June 27, 2016, its response to Fry's Motion to Compel, which may at the government's option include references to the Holsinger Declaration, but the government must not file the Declaration itself unless the government is willing to do so under seal and pursuant to a protective order as proposed by Defendant Fry. If after reviewing the government's Response (without the Declaration) the Court determines it cannot fairly consider the government's arguments without also considering the information the government proposes to provide via the requested ex parte submission of the Holsinger Declaration, the Court will reopen its consideration of the government's Renewed Motion 755 regarding the ex parte filing and advise the parties accordingly. 06/29/2016	792	ORDER by Judge Anna J. Brown. Defendants Ryan Payne, Ammon Bundy, Joseph O'Shaughnessy, Ryan Bundy, Peter Santilli, and Blaine Cooper (collectively Defendants) move to dismiss the Superseding Indictment on the basis that their simultaneous prosecution in the District of Nevada and their 13-day absence from the District of Oregon in April 2016 for the purpose of being arraigned in the District of Nevada denied Defendants their rights to due process and effective assistance of counsel in the District of Oregon. The Court finds, however, that Defendants have not made any showing that their simultaneous prosecution in the District of Nevada generally nor their single, short-term trip to Nevada specifically has prejudicially interfered with their rights in this proceeding or their ability to prepare their defenses in this matter. Accordingly, the Court DENIES Defendants' Motion 480 to Dismiss. (bb) (Entered: 06/29/2016)

07/01/2016	826	Order by Judge Anna J. Brown as to Ammon Bundy, Ryan Bundy, Shawna Cox, Neil Wampler. This Order addresses the scheduling of the Court's consideration of the following Motions: (1) the Motion 815 R to Continue September 7, 2016, Trial Date filed by Ammon Bundy; (2) the Motion 818 to Continue September 7, 2016, Trial Date filed by Ryan Bundy; (3) the Motion 816 for Extension of Time to File Motion to Continue Trial filed by Defendant Neil Wampler; and (4) the Motion 820 for Extension of Time filed by Shawna Cox. With respect to the first two Motions (#815 and #818), the Court notes these Motions do not include any certification of conferral with government counsel contrary to the Court's consistent directives on the record and in various case-management Orders such as Order 415 ("All motions require advance conferral with opposing counsel, and the conferral must be in real time rather than merely by email and must be done sufficiently in advance of filing...."). Although counsel for Ammon Bundy indicate he did not decide to seek a continuance until late in the evening on the date of the deadline for motions to continue the trial date, the timing of that decision does not excuse the failure to confer with the government before filing the Motion because this deadline has been in place since the Court set it by Order (#726) issued June 17, 2016. Indeed, the Court notes that rather than file an incomplete motion, Defendants Neil Wampler and Shawna Cox filed a motion to extend the deadline to seek a continuance. And although Defendant Ryan Bundy is self-represented, he has standby counsel who could assist him in accomplishing the required conferral. In any event, the Court

		directs counsel for Ammon Bundy and standby counsel for Ryan Bundy to confer meaningfully in person or by telephone with counsel for the government as to these Motions. The Court also directs these Defendants to file no later than 3:00 p.m. on July 5, 2016, a supplemental memorandum in further support of their Motions which confirms by certification that meaningful conferral took place as to the bases of the Motions and informs the Court of the government's position on these Motions (#815, #818). The Court will address these Motions as part of the agenda at the Regular Status Hearing scheduled for July 6, 2016. With respect to Motions (#816 and #820) on behalf of Defendants Wampler and S. Cox, the Court will also address these matters as part of the agenda at the Regular Status Hearing scheduled for July 6, 2016. (bb) Modified on 7/1/2016 correcting date of Status Conference (bb). The Court acknowledges the filing by Defendant Shawna Cox of a pro se Affidavit 840 in which she makes numerous erroneous statements of applicable law and raises issues about the adequacy of representation by her assigned counsel. The Court directed Ms. Cox's counsel to confer with Ms. Cox and, if Ms. Cox wishes a Faretta hearing, to file a motion to that effect which will be scheduled in connection with the already-set hearings beginning on 7/18/16. The Court finds excludable delay through the new trial date of 2/14/2017. They are also excused from all remaining pretrial proceedings before 09/07/2016. Beginning 9/14/2016, and on the second Wednesday of each month through 2/8/2017, the Court directs the continued Defendants and the government to provide the Court with a single, joint status message that sets out concisely any new issues that the Court must address in order to permit their trial preparation to proceed without delay. 07/26/2016	932	ORDER by Judge Anna J. Brown as to Kenneth Medenbach (16). Defendant Kenneth Medenbach has filed an Amended Motion 921 to Dismiss Based on Unlawful Oath of Office on the same basis as the oral Motion to Dismiss that Defendant Medenbach raised at the Faretta Hearing held March 11, 2016, and that the Court denied on the record at that hearing and on the same basis as his Motion for Reconsideration 361 and Amended Motion 384 to Dismiss that the Court denied by Order 440 issued April 20, 2016. In addition, Medenbach has informally raised this and related issues during Status Hearings on multiple occasions. As the Court has previously pointed out to Medenbach, minor variations in the phrasing of the oath of office does not deprive this Court of jurisdiction. See United States v. Medenbach , No. 96-30168, 1997 WL 306437, at *3 (9th Cir. 1997). Accordingly, the Court DENIES Medenbach's Amended Motion 921 to Dismiss Based on Unlawful Oath of Office. The Court also directs the Clerk to strike Medenbach's Motion 920 to Dismiss Based on Unlawful Oath of Office that was superseded by Medenbach's subsequent Amended Motion. The Court is in the process of determining the specific jury records which will be made available for inspection pursuant to a protective order in response to Defendant's Motion and will enter an order in that regard as soon as that process is concluded. 07/29/2016	955	ORDER: The Court acknowledges the filing of Documents (# 941 , # 942 , # 943 , # 944 , # 945 , # 946 , # 947 , and # 948 ) by Defendant Ryan Bundy on July 28, 2016. After reviewing the Documents the Court concludes they do not raise any legally cognizable issue for this Court to address in these proceedings. Ryan Bundy, therefore, will not be permitted to re-raise any issue that he addresses in his July 28, 2016, filings, or to make any argument to the jury regarding the contents of those filings. In those documents, however, the Court notes Defendant Ryan Bundy repeatedly asserts he is not subject to this Court's jurisdiction and, therefore, is not subject to this Court's Orders. At his Faretta hearing on March 18, 2016, the Court instructed Ryan Bundy that he was required to follow all Court Orders, and that failure to follow Court Orders could result in Bundy forfeiting the right to represent himself. The Court, therefore, warns Ryan Bundy that any further indication that he will not follow the Court's Orders will result in Ryan Bundy forfeiting the right to self-representation. If that occurs, the Court will reinstate Standby Counsel Lisa Ludwig as Ryan Bundy's counsel for the remainder of these proceedings. Ordered by Judge Anna J. Brown. (mja) (Entered: 07/29/2016)
07/29/2016	956	ORDER: Defendant Ryan Bundy moves to dismiss this action on the basis that this Court does not have jurisdiction over a "civil or criminal proceeding regarding a debt, in Harney County, Oregon." These proceedings, however, do not concern any debt. This is a federal criminal action brought by the United States against the Defendants named in the Superseding Indictment (# 282 R ). This Court has jurisdiction over this federal criminal action pursuant to Article III, Section 2, United States Constitution. The Court, therefore, DENIES Defendant Ryan Bundy's Motion (# 927 ) to Dismiss. If Ryan Bundy raises this issue again, he will forfeit his right to self-representation. 08/09/2016	989	Motion to Unseal Document Government witness list by Defendant Shawna Cox. (Harris, Tiffany) (Entered: 08/09/2016)
08/09/2016	990	ORDER by Judge Anna J. Brown as to Shawna Cox (7). The Court has reviewed Pro Se Defendant Shawna Cox's Motion 989 to Unseal Government Witness List which Defendant filed on August 9, 2016. The Court notes the parties (including Cox) filed on July 28, 2016, a Joint Motion 940 for Leave to File Witness Lists Under Seal, which the Court granted by Order 952 , issued July 29, 2016. The Court found good cause to grant the parties' Joint Motion for Leave to File Witness Lists Under Seal in order to "protect witnesses from improper contact before trial" in light of the public interest in this case and the efforts of some individuals not associated with the parties to influence these proceedings. In support of her current Motion, however, Cox cites Oregon state statutory and constitutional principles that do not apply in this federal criminal proceeding. Moreover, the Court finds wholly meritless Cox's contention that the Order sealing the witness lists is depriving her of the opportunity to confront witnesses against her. This is so because Cox, as a party to these proceedings, already has access to the government's witness list and, accordingly, already has the opportunity to prepare to cross-examine even before trial. Moreover, Cox, like all of the other Defendants will have an opportunity to cross-examine and confront government witnesses at trial. In any event, the identities of all trial witnesses will become public during the trial proceedings. The Court concludes the rationale for sealing the parties' witness lists pretrial applies with equal force today as it did when the Court granted the parties' Joint Motion for Leave to File Witness Lists Under Seal less than two weeks ago. Accordingly, the Court DENIES Cox's Motion 989 to Unseal Government Witness List. (bb) (Entered: 08/09/2016)

08/09/2016	992	Order by Judge Anna J. Brown as to Kenneth Medenbach. Defendant Kenneth Medenbach moves to dismiss the Superseding Indictment 950 on the basis that the United States may not lawfully exercise jurisdiction over the Malheur National Wildlife Refuge (MNWR), and, therefore, the criminal charges in this case must be dismissed. In the Court's Order 649 R Resolving Round One Motions on the Pleadings, issued June 3, 2016, the Court concluded the United States has constitutional authority to own and to regulate the MNWR. Medenbach's current Motion 950 to Dismiss is controlled by that decision. Accordingly, on this record the Court DENIES Medenbach's Motion 950 to Dismiss. The Court issues a final warning to Medenbach that he will lose his right to proceed pro se the next time he files a motion based on matters that have already been resolved, including the United States government's authority to own and to regulate the MNWR. (bb) Modified on 8/10/2016 (bb). (Entered: 08/09/2016)

08/18/2016	1061	Order by Judge Anna J. Brown as to Ammon Bundy. On August 17, 2016, Defendant Ammon Bundy filed Document 1052 that is titled "Trial Memorandum and Opposition to the Government's Motion in Limine re: Adverse Possession" and that is 28 pages in length. The substance of this filing, however, is solely a response to the government's Motion 959 in Limine to Exclude the Defense of Adverse Possession, and, pursuant to the Court's Order 917 and Order 389 , all motions in limine and responses thereto are limited to 10 pages in length. On the other hand, pursuant to the Court's Order 917 , the parties were permitted to file trial memoranda up to 35 pages in length. Ammon Bundy's trial memorandum was due August 16, 2016, pursuant to the Court's Order 1041 , but Document 1052 was not filed by that deadline. Thus, to the extent Document 1052 is a response to the government's Motion 959 in Limine, it violates the page limitations of Orders 917 and 389 without seeking and obtaining leave to do so, and to the extent it is a Trial Memorandum, it likewise violates the deadline set in Order 1041 . The Court, therefore, STRIKES Ammon Bundy's Trial Memorandum and Opposition to the Government's Motion in Limine re: Adverse Possession 1052 , but grants him leave to make a new filing no later than Noon on August 18, 2016, that is responsive to the government's Motion 959 in Limine to Exclude the Defense of Adverse Possession and that complies with the page limitations in Order 917 and Order 389 . To the extent Ammon Bundy wishes to file a late Trial Memorandum, he may file without delay a motion requesting leave to do so supported by a showing of good cause and attaching a copy of the pleading he seeks to file late.
