RE: "Grand Jury Presentment to the United States Supreme Court"

Dear Ms. NLA:

The papers were received on June 4, 2026. These papers fail to comply with the Rules of this Court and are herewith returned.

You may seek review of a decision only by filing a timely petition for writ of certiorari. The papers you submitted are not construed to be a petition for writ of certiorari. Should you choose to file a petition for writ of certiorari, you must submit the petition within the 90 day time limit allowed under Rule 13 of the Rules of this Court. A Copy of the Rules of this Court and a sample petition for a writ of certiorari are enclosed.

Your case must first be reviewed by a United States court of appeals or by the highest state court in which a decision could be had. 28 USC 1254 and 1257.

The original jurisdiction of this Court does not extend to a suit by an individual against a State. The original jurisdiction of this Court generally extends only to cases or controversies between two or more states or between the United States and one or more states. See 28 U.S.C. 1251 and Rule 17 of the Rules of this Court. The Eleventh Amendment amends the language of the Constitution and holds that the Judicial Power of the United States does not extend to any suit commenced or prosecuted against a state by a citizen of another state. The Supreme Court has subsequently held numerous times that states cannot be sued without their consent and that the Eleventh amendment bars suits brought against a state by citizens of that state. Hans v. Louisiana, 134 U.S. 1 (1890).

Sincerely,
Scott S. Harris, Clerk
